 WE ARE A NON-PROFIT 501 (C)(3) CHARITABLE ORGANIZATION

Greetings:

It has been stated that "music is a universal language; it speaks to the soul without words." That is a statement that completely describes our mutual appreciation for the form of art that we call music. To serve as the President of the Marshall Symphony Orchestra (MSO) for its seventy-second season is indeed an honor and privilege. If it were not for the board members, officers, musicians and steadfast donors and friends, this organization would not be able to produce the melodious melodies that we are pleased to provide to our community. We are very excited about the 2024-2025 Concert Season, and hope that you will be as well.

Every concert this season promises to be extraordinary. Whether you are a lifelong supporter or attending your first performance, your support helps make everything we do possible. Together, we're charting a vision for artistic excellence, continued cultural relevance, and increased financial sustainability to ensure that the MSO remains a jewel in Marshall's crown for years to come. Thank you, in advance, for your attendance and investment. We look forward to sharing an amazing 2024 season with each of you.

Warmest Regards,

Charles H. Cornish, II
 President of the Board of Directors
